Letter of Commitment

I understand that this retreat series is intended to be both experiential and developmental. I understand that I am committing to a full retreat series consisting of four, three-day residential retreats.

- November 8-10, 2018
- January 31 - February 2, 2019
- April 11-13, 2019
- July 11-13, 2019

Signing this letter of commitment indicates that I will be responsible for paying the full cost of all retreats in the series once I have registered and paid my deposit. Any request for an exception will be decided on an individual basis and only in the case of dire circumstances. Your commitment protects upfront financial commitments made on your behalf for the series. Thank you for your understanding and assurance.

Personal Statement

As an introduction, please tell Caryl, Jeff and Karen, as your facilitators, about an issue or question you are living with that brings you to these Circles of Trust retreats. It may be an issue or question that you are seeking to better understand and act upon through your experience of these retreats. Caryl, Jeff and Karen will be the only persons to read these personal statements and you can be assured that we will keep them confidential. They will give us a sense of who you are and what brings you to this work, as well as provide you with an opportunity to reflect upon your intentions, needs, and desires.

We would appreciate your writing several paragraphs naming and describing this issue or question. You can use this page for your response if you wish; feel free to add pages. Thank you for helping us to begin to get to know you in this way.

Please return this Personal Statement with your Registration form, Letter of Commitment and payment (if making payment by check) by October 1, 2018 to:

Circle of Trust, c/o PMB #246, 333 S. State Street, Lake Oswego, OR, 97034
